WHAT'S REPLACING DLA?

Disability Living Allowance is set to finish on April 2013 onwards, both the mobility and care components. All of us as disabled people under 65 will have to apply for Personal Independence Plan Funding instead. How much do you know about the changes which became Law under the Welfare Reform Act 2012? Will you be eligible for PIP? How will it be assessed? How can you prepare?

Come and hear our Specialist Speaker, Robbie Spence, from Disability Rights UK in London and discuss together how you can influence it.
